Periodicals

Food and Nutrition

A bimonthly magazine which reports on activities in food programs. It reports their impact on people, the activities of public and private agencies in helping those in need of food assistance, and work of individuals and groups of volunteers. Distribution is free to cooperating State and local agencies, professional groups working with school programs or low-income families, and persons who can further disseminate food and nutrition information. Sales distribution: single copies, 50 cents, domestic subscription, $3.00 a year; foreign subscription, $3.75 a year.

Food and Nutrition

A newsletter is issued periodically, featuring brief reports of the current news of food programs. It is distributed to persons who are doing information or education work closely related to these programs, including State and local cooperating agencies, and participants in the White House Conference on Food, Nutrition and Health. Write to Information Division of the Food and Nutrition Service.

Child Nutrition Programs

Handbook for Volunteers—Child Nutrition Programs (FNS-10)

Aimed at individuals and organizations who wish to bring Child Nutrition services to their community. It contains examples of what others have done, descriptions of the Child Nutrition Programs, and suggestions for community service projects. The pamphlet is particularly useful as a teaching device for groups.

The National School Lunch Program: Background and Development (FNS-63)

Describes the foundation of the program in Europe and the U.S. extending through the National School Lunch Act of 1946, the Child Nutrition Act of 1966, and the 1970 Child Nutrition amendments. The pamphlet points out the growing public concern for nutrition and the program growth and development which resulted from this concern.

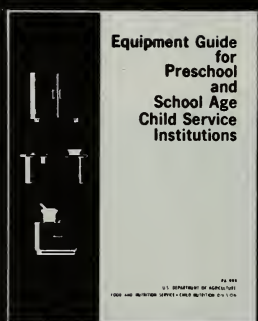

NATIONAL SCHOOL LUNCH PROGRAM 25 YEARS OF PROGRESS

FOOD AND NUTRITION SERVICE • U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

National School Lunch Program—25 Years of Progress (PA-980)

Reports the history of the program from 1946-71. A detailed chart shows numbers of participants and dollar amounts spent in each State, and two small charts state contributions to the program and the value of the food. Plans for improvements in the system are described including engineered foods, satellite feeding, and computer-assisted menu planning.

Equipment Guide for Preschool and School Age Child Service Institutions (PA-999)

Gives suggestions for planning and equipping kitchen and dining areas to serve 15 to 100 children. Included are: specifications for equipment, utensils, and tableware; along with sample kitchen layouts. (65 cents)

A Menu Planning Guide for Type A School Lunches (PA-719)

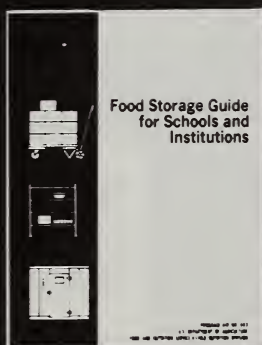

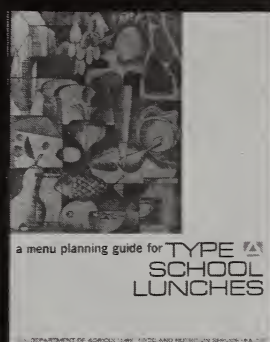

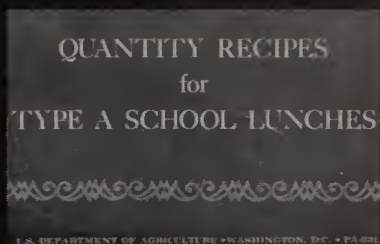

Developed to help school lunch personnel plan Type A lunches and understand the relationship of the Type A lunch requirements to the dietary needs of children. It includes information on planning lunches for various age groups, a chart listing foods under each requirement for a Type A lunch, steps to follow in planning and evaluating menus, plus sample menus. ($1.05)

Food Storage Guide for Schools and Institutions (PA-403)

Shows good methods of handling and storing USDA-donated and locally purchased foods. It includes the latest research data available on types of storage facilities and equipment needed for handling and storing foods. (85 cents)

Quantity Recipes for Child Care Centers (FNS-86)

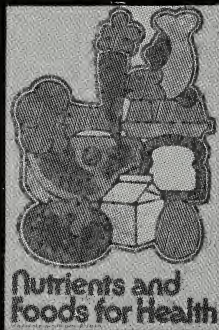

A guide in card file format offering recipes designed to help meal planners meet the standards set by FNS for centers taking part in the year-round Child Care Food Service Program. It is specially developed for young children in day care centers. The file also gives general information on meal patterns, menu suggestions, food quantities, and common measures, ingredient substitutions, and portion control. ($6.40)

Nutrients and Foods for Health (FNS-95)

The 30-inch by 40-inch multicolored poster pictures 13 nutrients and the food sources for each. It is useful as a teaching aid in secondary school lunchrooms and school lunch workshops. (75 cents)

Nutrients and Foods for Health (FNS-97)

As a smaller version of FNS-95 (20" x 16½") it offers the same nutrient and food source information and is useful as a desk aid. (25 cents)

Energize Your Day with Breakfast—A Message for Parents and Community Groups (FNS-151)

A white and rust brochure briefly describing the School Breakfast Program. It offers suggestions for encouraging schools to participate.

Energize Your Day with Breakfast—A Message for School Administrators (FNS-152)

This yellow and brown brochure describes the School Breakfast Program, specifies assistance available from USDA's Food and Nutrition Service, and lists participation requirements.

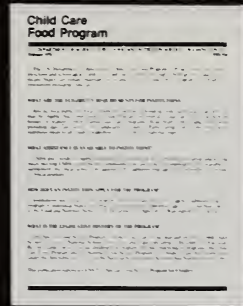

Bicentennial Breakfast Menus
(FNS-153)

A 4¼x11 brochure showing school administrators how the School Breakfast Program can complement classroom learning. Its breakfast menu ideas have a bicentennial theme.

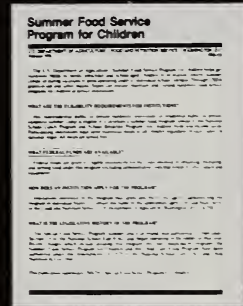

Child Care Food Program (FNS-154)

A fact sheet describing the USDA program which helps get nutritious meals to preschool and school-aged children in child care facilities. It explains the legislative history of the program, the eligibility requirements for institutions, what assistance is available from USDA, and how an institution applies for the participation in the program.

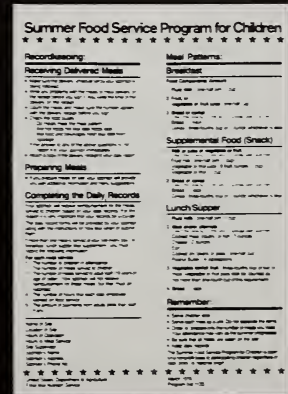

Summer Food Service Program for Children (FNS-155)

A general fact sheet explaining how the program helps get nutritious meals to needy preschool and school-aged children in recreation centers, summer camps, or during vacations in areas operating under a continuous school calendar. It gives the legislative history of the program and the eligibility requirements for institutions, and explains what Federal funds are available and how institutions can apply for the program.

Summer Food Service Program for Children chart (PA-1133)

This 17 x 22 chart is for summer feeding program site personnel. It is a ready reference for daily procedure, highlighting recordkeeping and meal pattern requirements.

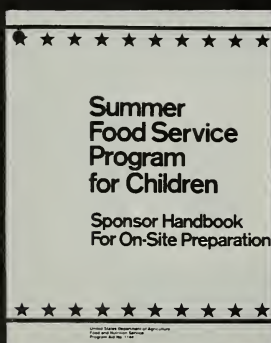

Summer Food Service Program for Children, Site Handbook (PA-1134)

This pocket-sized handbook clarifies program responsibilities and regulations for summer feeding program site personnel.

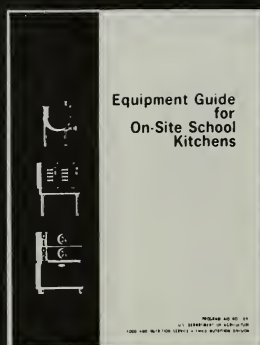

Summer Food Service Program for Children, Sponsor Handbook for Catered Programs (PA-1143)

A 60-page handbook designed for potential and approved sponsors of a catered USDA summer feeding program for children. It provides detailed information on planning and operating a program.

Summer Food Service Program for Children, Sponsor Handbook for On-Site Preparation (PA-1144)

A comprehensive guide for potential and approved sponsors of a single-site summer feeding program for children. It emphasizes nutrition and menu planning, necessary for preparing meals on the site.

Equipment Guide for On-Site School Kitchens (PA-1091)

Contains information on planning new school food service facilities and on equipping existing ones. Specifies type, size, and quantity of equipment needed. Identifies facilities required at each work station, lists desirable equipment features, and where necessary, gives layout of individual equipment. ($1.95)

A Guide for Planning Food Service in Child Care Centers (FNS-64)

Prepared to help directors and personnel plan food service for preschool children in child care centers. It contains information on meal patterns for young children, purchase and preparation of food, sanitation procedures, and suggested menu ideas. There are also sections on infant feeding, how to encourage favorable attitudes toward food and good eating habits, plus a list of publications on child feeding. (55 cents)

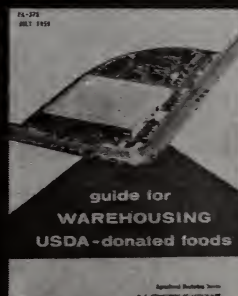

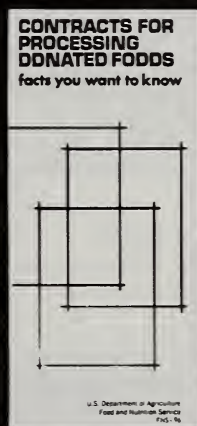

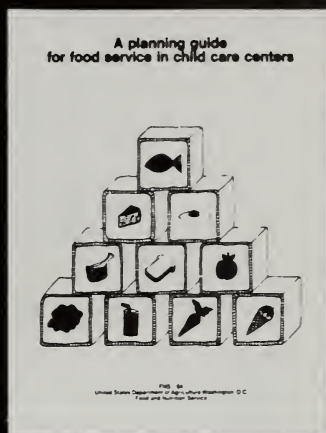

Food Distribution Programs

Contracts for Processing Donated Foods (FNS-96)

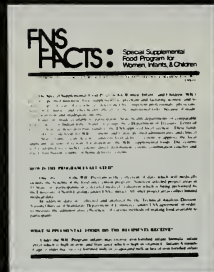

A leaflet explaining in question and answer form how schools and institutions can and are contracting with commercial food processors to convert federally donated foods into such ready-to-use and convenience items as bread, pasta products, pizza shells, cake mixes, precooked meat loaves, turkey rolls, etc.

Guide for Warehousing USDA-Donated Food (PA-373)

Assembled to acquaint distributing agencies with the types of warehouses, storage facilities, and equipment needed for handling and storing USDA-donated foods. It contains information on the protection of foods, inspection and records, effective use of warehousing space, efficient use of equipment, and efficient use of labor.

Special Supplemental Food Program For Women, Infants and Children

Special Supplemental Food Program for Women, Infants and Children (FNS-131)

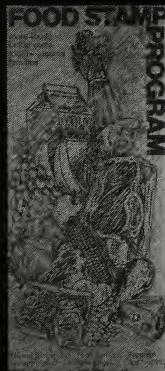

A general fact sheet describing how the program operates, who is eligible to participate, what foods they receive, and how local agencies can apply to operate the program.

Food Stamp Program

Shopping with Food Stamps (PA-1109)

A pocket-sized information pamphlet for those who use food stamps, particularly those who are just entering the program. It simplifies the do's and don'ts of food stamp regulations and gives some tips to help shoppers get the most out of their food stamps.

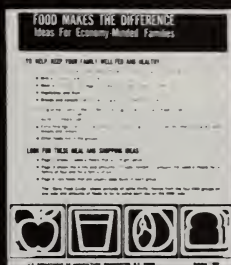

Food Stamp Program—More Food, Better Diets for Low-Income Families (PA-930)

Directed toward those persons who do not need stamps, but who want to know what the program is all about. The text provides a brief summary of the program, who is eligible and how it operates. There are also sections on nutrition education and community involvement in the food stamp program.

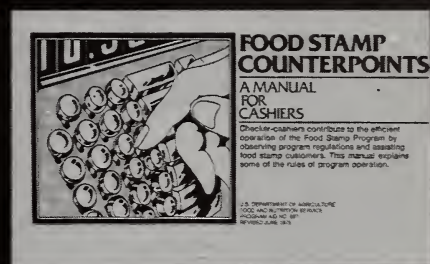

Food Makes the Difference—Ideas for Economy-Minded Families (PA-934)

Lists ways to help a family have nutritious meals on a low budget. It gives suggested menus for a full week, with a chart telling how much of each food item in the menus is needed for families of four and six persons. Economical buys in each of the four main food groups are listed on the back, along with a listing of foods which are likely to increase food costs.

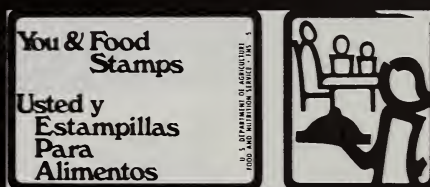

Food Stamp Counter Points: A Manual for Cashiers (PA-997)

As a companion to "A Guide for Retailers and Wholesalers" (PA-534), this publication describes the operation of the food stamp program and lists the special do's and don'ts for cashiers.

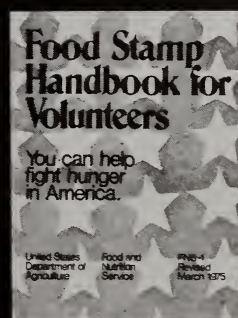

You and Food Stamps (FNS-5)

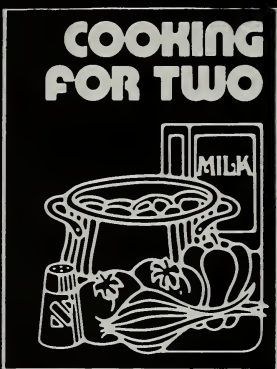

A bilingual fold-out leaflet written in English and Spanish. It states in simple terms the nutrition food groups, the eligibility requirements for getting food stamps, how to apply for the stamps, and how the program works. The pamphlet is useful as an eye-catching initial introduction to the Food Stamp Program.

Food Stamp Handbook for Volunteers—You Can Help Fight Hunger in America (FNS-1)

A guide for individuals and organizations that want to support the food stamp program in their communities. It describes the program, gives suggestions for activities, and lists resource materials available.

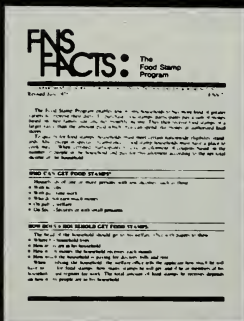

Cooking for Two (PA-1043)

Offers over 100 recipes, with menu ideas, tips on planning, serving, storing, and preparing meals. The recipes are especially helpful to one or two family households in Federal-State food assistance programs because of the low-cost foods, easy instructions, and minimum equipment. ($1.25)

The Food Stamp Program (PA-1123)

A comprehensive guide to the food stamp program, aimed at current and potential food stamp recipients. Includes chapters on eligibility requirements, allotments and purchase requirements, work registration, fair hearings, household income deductions, recipient responsibility.

Food Stamp Program (FNS-77)

A general fact sheet describing who can participate in the program, what steps households need to take to receive food stamps, and how the coupons are used. This publication is also available in Spanish, Samoan, and Yiddish.

Official Food List (FNS-110)

Grocers participating in the food stamp program are required to post this red, white, and blue poster describing what items can and cannot be purchased with food stamps. It is available in Spanish and Chinese also. There is a special version of the Official Food List for Alaska.

Food Stamps Make the Difference (FNS-111)

“Las Estampillas de Alimentos Hacen la Diferencia” means food stamps make the difference! This colorful Spanish poster in yellow and maroon is approximately 11 x 28 inches. There is a space provided for the address and phone number of the local food stamp office to be inserted. Also available in English.

Changemaking Procedures For the Food Stamp Program (FNS-112)

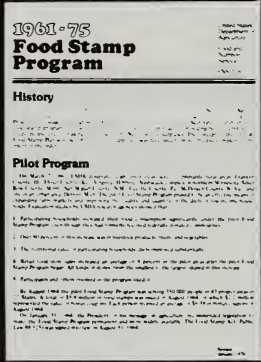

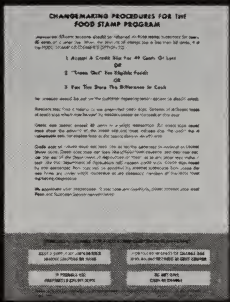

A leaflet describing the procedures a grocer should follow in making change for food stamp customers. Examples of sample credit slips are shown

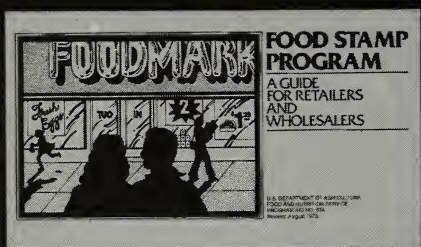

1961-75 Food Stamp Program (FNS-118)

A brief history of the food stamp program covering the years 1961 through 1975. This publication is useful as reference material.

We Accept Food Stamps (FNS-132)

A colorful, eye-catching window poster for grocers who participate in the food stamp program, to assure shoppers that they can use their food stamps in that store.

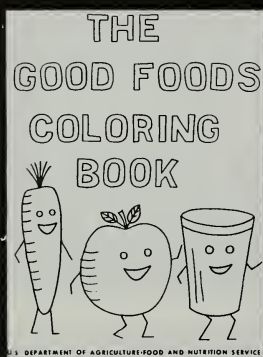

The Food Stamp Program—A Guide for Retailers and Wholesalers (PA-534)

Designed to answer questions retailers and wholesalers may have about becoming a food stamp store. There is a page of retailer do's and don'ts, along with information on how to be authorized to accept food stamps and what steps are necessary to redeem the coupons.

Educational Aids

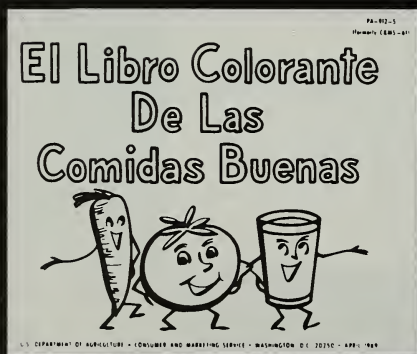

The Good Foods Coloring Book (PA-912)

This coloring book teaches nutrition to children through pictures and words. The objects to be colored all pertain to good nutrition. They are divided into the four food groups and the story line tells the children the names of each food and what color it should be. There are also comments to children on how a food is eaten or what vitamins it contains. (60 cents)

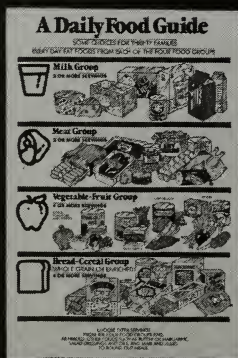

El Libro Colorante De Las Comidas Buenas (PA-912-S)

This pamphlet is a Spanish version of the Good Foods Coloring Book. The foods to be colored all pertain to good nutrition. Again the story line gives the name of the item, what color it should be, and how it is eaten. There is a chart on the inside back cover showing the English equivalent for Spanish words. (60 cents)

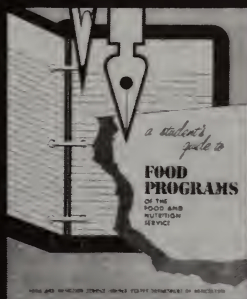

A Daily Food Guide (FNS-13)

Illustrates foods from each of the four food groups—milk group, meat group, vegetable-fruit group, and bread-cereal group. Shows a variety of relatively inexpensive foods from each group, and lists the servings recommended every day. Uses pictures and text to show how much of each food counts as a serving. Easy to read, the guide helps users plan nutritious inexpensive meals. (25 cents)

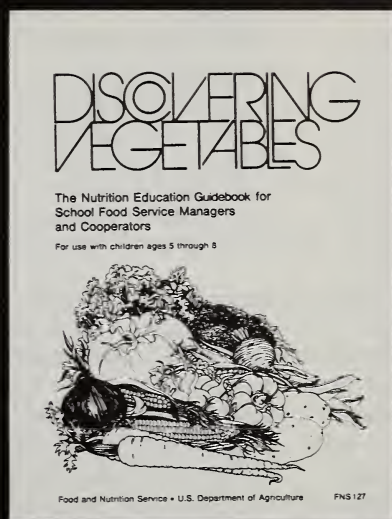

A Student's Guide to Food Programs of the Food and Nutrition Service

A pocketed folder which may be filled with pamphlets or fact sheets or other information . . . depending on its use, it is designed as a mailer for students interested in the various food programs, and interested in what they can do to make the programs work.

Discovering Vegetables (FNS-127)

Emphasizes teamwork among school food service managers, teachers, parents, principals, and others in teaching children about food—especially vegetables. Helps children identify a variety of vegetables by color, shape, size, taste, and name. In suggested learning experiences, children participate in preparation of vegetables and taste a variety of them. These experiences help increase their acceptance of vegetables. (40 cents)

Food for Youth Study Guide (FNS-140)

This publication accompanies a televised course in nutrition and food service management designed for school food service workers participating in the National School Lunch Program. The Food for Youth series was developed as 10 half-hour television shows on different aspects of nutrition education. The study guide provides material which supplements the television programs, including definitions of important words introduced in each program, a summary of basic points to remember, and thought-provoking questions that lead into the next program. ($1.70) Persons or organizations interested in renting or buying the Food for Youth series on 16 mm film can write to the Order Section, National Audio Visual Center (GSA), Washington, D.C. 20409.
